Dr. Robert Lebow Will Speak at Club Luncheon

Dr. Robert C. Lebow, a member of the Los Angeles County Heart Assn. will be the guest speaker at the Jan. 14 luncheon of the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club. In keeping with the Association's efforts to urge preventive measures as a valuable aid in decreasing heart disorders, Dr. Lebow will present "How We As Women Can Save Our Men From Heart Attacks," a topic of great significance to every wife or mother. As a supplement to the talk, a film, "Guard Your Heart" will be shown.

Dr. Lebow received his training at the University of Illinois Medical School with residency at Cook County Hospital where he specialized in internal medicine.

He is on the staff at Torrance Memorial, Little Company of Mary and Carlson Memorial hospitals. In addition, he teaches at White Memorial Hospital.

To further illustrate Dr. Lebow's important topic, a tour of Good Samaritan Hospital for club members and other interested persons on Jan. 28.

All newcomers of the area are invited to attend the luncheon meeting tomorrow at 12:30 at the Redondo Elks Club, 315 Esplanade and to make the hospital tour.

Luncheon reservations and baby sitting arrangements may be made by calling Mrs. Thomas Tomlinson.

Local Women Returns Photo To Joe E. Brown

Mrs. Frances Aleko, whose stage name was "Panthea Aleko," and her daughter, Mrs. Jimmie L. Miller, 916 Javelin Ave., attended the installation of the Hollywood Comedy Club Thursday evening at the Troopers Auditorium on La Brea in Los Angeles.

Joe E. Brown conducted the installation and served as master of ceremonies.

Having lost many of his mementos in a fire a few years ago, Brown had asked that anyone having pictures and other items of his early career to return them to him. Last Thursday evening he had a pleasant surprise when Mrs. Aleko presented him with his picture made when he was 10 years old and performing with the "Flying Ashtons," a circus act.
